What is Teacher Collaborative Inquiry?

- a fund to enable Professional Development through teacher collaborative inquiry
- a process which allows teachers to work with colleagues to strengthen their professional practice, deepen their understanding of teaching and participate in ongoing professional growth.
- teachers exploring inquiry questions & sharing ideas/knowledge around effective teaching practices & learning principles
- Improved student learning is not necessarily a direct outcome of the inquiry, but is the overall purpose.

1. What is your inquiry question? (Note that groups may wish to continue with an inquiry from last year but still need to write their question.)

2. Is this a continuation of last year's question? Yes ____ No ____
If yes, please attach original application

3. What is the rationale for this question? Include specifics, subject area, grade levels targeted, resources, what specific technology, and what specific learning?

4. What aspect of student learning will you focus on?
